BY : Karen L. Alvarez Martínez

CONTEXT

- ❑ I.E. La Ribera is located in la Ribera neighborhood, in Monteria-Cordoba.
- ❑ grades 7th and 8th .
- ❑ Teenager students
- ❑ Number of the students: 40 each.
- ❑ Head teachers: Luis martinez and Yulieth Rangel

EXPERIENCE

WHAT I FOUND

- ▶ Low English level
- ▶ Indiscipline
- ▶ Traditional teaching methods
- ▶ Teacher centered lessons
- ▶ Uses of the L1 all the time
- ▶ Viewed learning English as schematic grammar process to be memorized.

FINAL RESULTS

- ▶ Oral participations
- ▶ Dynamic lessons (games, role plays and oral presentations)
- ▶ Students centers lessons
- ▶ Positive attitude for participation
- ▶ View English as a tool for daily communication .

STRATEGIES

- ❑ NOT assumptions.
- ❑ adjustment lessons according to the students levels.
- ❑ Group work
- ❑ Monitoring students
- ❑ Communicative strategies
- ❑ Prize students for participation.

DIFFICULTIES

- ❑ Large number of students in the classrooms.
- ❑ Indiscipline
- ❑ Tone of voice
- ❑ Uses of translations
- ❑ Not oral participations (fear of making mistakes)

REFLEXION

AS A PERSON:

- ☐ Discover different stages of my personality.
- ☐ Deal with people from different background.
- ☐ To overcome challenges.

AS A TEACHER:

- ☐ Grateful experience
- ☐ Enrich my teaching knowledge.
- ☐ Faced the real public classroom situations.
- ☐ Be more patient.

AS A RESEARCHER:

- ☐ To search for the variables of the student's attitude toward learning English.
- ☐ What meaningful this experience was for me.
